

Brookings Flying Club

Aviation Scholarship Program

One goal of the Brookings Flying Club (BFC) is to interest youth in pursuing an aviation career. Accordingly, BFC provides tuition fee scholarships for students seeking an education in that field. Information about BFC may be found at <http://www.brookingsflyingclub.org/>.

Students who are interested in a career related to the field of aviation, and meet the following eligibility requirements are invited to fill out the attached application form.

STUDENT APPLICANTS MUST BE:

1. Accepted and enrolled in an accredited aviation-related program. A copy of your letter of acceptance must be submitted to the Brookings Flying Club
2. A resident of the local (Brookings/Harbor or surrounding) area.

STUDENT APPLICANTS MUST ALSO:

1. Attach a typed, personal, 250-word essay. Essay topics may include information about aviation interests, career goals, current activities, scholarship need, aviation organizations, and any special qualifications the applicant wishes considered.
2. Supply names of at least 2 references, including current phone numbers.

SCHOLARSHIP TERMS:

1. Use of scholarship funds will be for tuition and paid directly to the educational facility.
2. The selection process will be based on BFC Aviation Scholarship Program guidelines and may include an interview with the Scholarship Committee and/or BFC membership.
3. Decisions of the BFC Scholarship Committee and/or BFC are final.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION RECEIPT: APRIL 1
